THE LIVE ISSUES OF THE DAY DIS CUSSED INTERESTINGLY.

The Most Enthusiastic Crowd of the Campaign at The Crawford-Something of the Political Southern Alliance.

Every one seemed happy yesterday moruig when they read in the EAGLE that Ser ator Plumb would speak at the Crawford. This may be putting it strong, but would be fairly correct leaving out a few dude copperheads and mushroom efforts that have, for some time, been discussing things become quite bold and ridiculous. This is assisting very much to clear up the politi-cal horizon. When one gets drunk he tells just what he thinks, having no more sense than to let himself be known. Then, they have, for some time, been resorting ener getically to making no cold-blooded false hoods about candidates; not one escaping their vile tongues. But the people were deeply interested. Yesterday was the great Alliance day. It had been advertised for some weeks. There were members of the organization here from Sedgwick and all the adjoining counties, and especially Butler and Cowley being represented. The parade in the morning took in the business streets. A number of counts were made of voters and people. No one reported more than 600 wagons, 962 voters and 2,748 peoparades, to make as big a show as possible.
